

THE Kitchen 475-9865

240 Mercer St. New York 10012

"The Kitchen for Electronic Media" located at Mercer Arts Center, is presenting during the month of June a Video Festival dealing specifically with video as an electronic art medium.

Video artists from throughout the United States and Canada have been invited and scheduled to present their works, which will include synthesized color and black and white visual compositions, simultaneous multichannel video environments, and many other rarely seen forms of electronic art.

Among the artists presenting their work are: Nam June Paik, Eric Siegel, Stephen Beck, (each of whom works with his own specially designed video synthesizer) Aldo Tambellini. Douglas Davis, Stan Vanderbeek, artists from Video Free America- San Francisco, Global Village, Space Video Arts, and many more.

Organising (and participating in the Festival) are: Woody and Steina Vasulka, Shridhar Bapat and Bill Etra.
